

While it lasted the telephone strike proved most inconvenient (to put it mildly), but on the other hand a lot of people found they could get along without making calls previously thought vital. Reminds me—a lot of people thought Alfred Conley's rash to start a real estate business without a telephone, but it hasn't seemed to handicap them at all.

Word arrives that the W. G. Billings have arrived safely with their trailer in Florida with only one flat tire to mar the nationwide trip. The Billings have leased their home here to Ray Mathis and plan on being gone at least a year. Before the war they made the trip to Florida several times and have many friends in the large trailer camps there. They are now at a place called Bradenton which boasts 2500 trailers with organized activities for the residents.

It looks as though Campbell will have to send a missionary to Los Gatos to enlighten them. One of our Campbell residents was purchasing a fishing license at a hardware store there and, when asked his address, gave his house number and street. "Oh," the clerk said, "Do you have house numbers there?"

Among the large number of Campbell people seen chuckling at "Dear Ruth" Monday night in the San Jose Civic Auditorium were the Carl Fields, the Joseph Agostinos, the Dean Chamberlains, Miss Rachel Spradling, Mrs. E. I. Price, Miss Helen Stray, the Guy Farleys, Mrs. H. F. Cousins and Mrs. Franklin Blair. Campbell had attractive representation among the San Jose State usherettes, too. There were Mary Blair, Ruth Cousins, Carol Lantz and Barbara Jensen.

Mrs. Archie Keesling, who is in charge of this section of the Red Cross did a grand job of taking care of the Bowdoin family who saved virtually nothing when their house was burned last week. Through the Junior Red Cross at the schools Mrs. Keesling provided clothes, beds and other necessities for the Bowdoins who are now living in the garage house on their lot. The firemen looked as though they needed some help from the Red Cross when they were through, too. Most of them were soaked to the skin and pretty worn out.

Death Claims Pioneer

Death last week claimed John J. Presho, 82, at his Campbell home. A native of Cloves, Ireland, Presho had lived in Santa Clara County for 50 years. He is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Viola Davis, Mrs. B. J. Nix, Santa Rosa, and Mrs. George King, Oakland; and two sons, Harry Presho, Oakland; and Stanley Presho, Burbank; also seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Requiem mass was celebrated at St. Joseph's church in San Jose last Saturday, with funeral services at the W. B. Ward Funeral Home. Interment followed at the Santa Clara Catholic Cemetery. Pallbearers were Peter Baggin, Martin Krieg, Carl McAdoo, David Noonan, Joseph Heyburn and John Cannuel.

Legionnaires Attend Breakfast

Several members of the Campbell Post of the American Legion attended a Legion breakfast at the Hotel Lyndon in Los Gatos last Monday when plans for the drive by the Los Gatos Post for its Memorial Legion Hall were discussed. The Campbell Post will assist in soliciting funds for the building which is to be built at a cost of $65,000. Modernistic in architecture, the structure will serve as a community hall besides housing Legion activities.

Clothes Drive Now On

More than 90,000,000 Americans have been mobilized in 11,078 cities, towns and villages throughout the nation to help war sufferers overseas, it was announced by Henry J. Kaiser, national chairman of the Victory Clothing Collection, which is now under way. He called the effort to collect 100,000,000 serviceable, used garments, in addition to shoes and bedding, one of the most far-flung operations ever organized to aid humanity. The collection, which will continue through Jan. 31, has the support of 93 national organizations representing 562,000 local chapters or units, and comprising a membership of 79,500,000 members. The cooperating groups include educational, youth, and women's organizations, service clubs, labor groups, veterans, fraternal and farm organizations. Church groups of all faiths, represented by more than 125,000 churches, parishes, and synagogues with memberships totaling 69,641,000 are also cooperating in local programs with Victory Clothing Collection committees.

Mr. Kaiser, who was also national chairman of the United National Clothing Collection last April, declared: "In the first united undertaking which provided clothing for 25,000,000 children, men and women in Europe, China and the Philippines, 7,671 communities were organized. But the need for serviceable clothing in bombed-out lands is still desperate. To help meet this great need, 3405 more communities than were organized in the first drive will participate in the collection this month.

"Through this community enterprise, the cities and towns of America are taking a direct part in world affairs. The gifts of clothing, shoes and bedding from each and every American home represents an essential part of our nation's contribution to the relief and rehabilitation of the war-devastated areas of the world. These gifts will show that Americans have not forgotten the sacrifices of our allies and their tragic plight even after victory has been won. These gifts will help to insure world peace.

"Words are not enough, but friendly messages, along with clothing gifts, can ease troubled spirits, revive hope, and build good will. Therefore, I urge each donor to take time to write a note to the unknown sufferer overseas who will receive the gift, and to attach this note to the garment."

Mr. Kaiser declared that this collection eliminates overlapping and duplication of effort since it is the one united nation-wide clothing drive for overseas relief this season that is authorized by the President's War Relief Control Board of which Joseph E. Davies is chairman. This board, set up by an Executive Order of the President, to authorize and regulate the collection by voluntary agencies of funds and goods for overseas relief, directed more than 75 war relief agencies not to "initiate or carry out any national or local public campaign to collect clothing for war relief purposes between the dates of Dec. 15 and Feb. 15 except in collaboration with and for the benefit of the Victory Clothing Collection."

Country Woman's Club

The next meeting of the Country Woman's Club will be held Monday, Jan. 21, at which time Mrs. A. D. Rice will present Lt. (J. G.) E. B. Bonewitz of Moffett Field, who will talk to the group about radar and present slides.

The Red Cross committee will distribute work to members who wish to complete it at home.

There will be a special board meeting at 2 p. m. in the club room.

Mrs. McBain Returns

Mrs. John McBain returned to her Campbell home last weekend to recuperate from a serious operation undergone at the University of California Hospital.

Death Claims Mrs. Dora Ross, Pioneer

Campbell lost another one of its pioneers when Mrs. Dora Ross died at O'Connor Sanitarium last Saturday after a brief final illness caused by a heart ailment.

Dora Carothers Ross was born April 7, 1882, in Ohio. She was but four years old when her parents came to California by way of Panama long before the days of the canal. They settled in El Dorado County, where for a time her father engaged in mining. She herself used to gather gold nuggets washed out by the winter storms.

After completing the lower schools she entered the San Jose State Normal and there met Marshall Ross. They were married in 1882 and immediately went to the ranch on McCoy Ave., which he had purchased the previous year. They planted the fields of grain to fruit trees, and there they lived for the following 62 years.

After celebrating their golden wedding in 1932, Mr. and Mrs. Ross took a vacation voyage to Hawaii, where one of their daughters was living. When her husband died in April, 1944, Mrs. Ross sold the ranch and lived for a time in San Jose, but returned last year to Campbell.

A charter member of the Country Woman's Club, Mrs. Ross was the only surviving member of the Campbell Congregational church.

She is survived by four children, all born upon the McCoy Ave. ranch: Mrs. Anna R. Joy of Berkeley; Mrs. Mable Ekstrand of Honolulu; William W. Ross of Oakland; and Mrs. Elizabeth Worden of San Jose. There are also 12 grandchildren and 6 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted at the Congregational church last Tuesday at 2 p. m., with the Rev. Robert Carlson officiating. Pallbearers were W. H. Stray, H. Chandler, S. B. Smith, W. Mitchell, T. A. Cutting, and F. H. Cutting. Interment followed at the Saratoga cemetery.

Mission Trails Assn. To Meet

Joining the groups that are once more meeting in conventions, the California Mission Trails Association, Ltd., will hold its 10th annual convention at Santa Barbara Jan. 27, 28 and 29, with the California Hotel as headquarters.

In addition to work by committees there will be a large amount of entertainment for the delegates, including a cocktail party at the Samarkand Hotel, a tea at the Cayarrubias Adobe, a dinner dance at the Biltmore Hotel, and a banquet with Leo Carrillo, star of stage and screen, as master of ceremonies.

Among the many excellent speakers who will address meetings at the convention are Harry Nuss, vice-president of the Bank of America, and John B. Long, general manager of the California Newspaper Publishers Association.

Another Campbell Boy Home

Clarence Edwin Fagalde, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Fagalde, Dry Creek Road, is home with his parents again after serving two and a half years in the South Pacific with the air force as one of a group of specialized technical mechanics. He received his discharge from Camp Beale in time to be home for the holidays. Clarence graduated from Campbell High with the 1941 class.

Col. Enderton Flies To Germany

Col. H. B. Enderton, who has been in Campbell on a 45-day leave, left last week by air for Germany, where he expects to be stationed south of Nuremberg. The Colonel, who is a West Point graduate, will be artillery executive of the 15th Corps.

C. of C. Elects Directors

At last night's Chamber of Commerce meeting with the new president, presiding, five new directors were elected from a choice of 11 selected by a nominating committee composed of Joseph Dahl, Herbert Shadle and C. P. Klassen. The new directors are Miss Rachel Spradling, Lowell Benson, James Dent, Byron Betts and Ira Grim.

Dues for the organization were raised to $5 per year after some discussion. A plea from the American Cancer Association was referred to the Community Chest for clearance and participation. By a unanimous vote it was decided to write the Planning Commission requesting the re-zoning of property along the railroad tracks from Hamilton Ave. to Casey Road to permit and interest new industries.

Joseph Dahl, chairman of the committee on incorporation, reported that his committee is now about to invite speakers to address Campbell groups on the subject.

At the suggestion of the president, Herbert Shadle, member of the County Planning Commission, read a verbatim report of the last Planning Board meeting which had denied the re-zoning of property on Winchester Road. According to this report, the reasons for denial were fear of a traffic hazard if a store was allowed, spotty zoning resulting from the location of the schools between this section and the main business section and deed restrictions which call for residences only in that section.

Bowdoin House Burns

One of the worst fires in the history of the fire department occurred last Thursday morning when the house occupied by Mrs. Veree Bowdoin and her family, burned. It was particularly difficult to fight, according to Jack Scott, fire chief, because of the headway made before the department was called and because of the construction of the roof. Firemen battled it for two hours before extinguishing it. Damage was so extensive that only the shell of the house is standing and even heavy beams are burned completely.

The blaze was started when clothes hanging near a gas heater caught fire. Attempts were made to put it out with a garden hose, but the progress of the flames was too rapid.

Don Snow, member of the fire department, received a severe cut when broken glass fell on his hand and arm.

Grange Installation

The joint installation of the Almaden and Orchard City Granges held in the IOOF Hall Tuesday evening, Jan. 8, was a large affair attended by many members of both groups. The installing team was composed of: presiding officer, Al Christopher; installing officer, District Deputy Carl Ryser; marshal, Mrs. Pearl Ryser; emblem bearer, Mrs. Madeline Marcial; regalia bearer, Mrs. Alice Foster; singer, Mrs. Effie Spencer; and chaplain, Mrs. Margaret Dickerman. Mervyn Keesling made arrangements for the event.

Orchard City officers installed for 1946 included: Master, Herbert M. Shadle; overseer, Martin S. Walsh; lecturer, Mrs. Nellie Ruth-erford; steward, George Shattuck; assistant steward, Mervyn S. Keesling; chaplain, Mrs. Mina Gordon; treasurer, Colin C. Graham; secretary, Mrs. Ruth Livingston; gate keeper, Harry A. Wann; Goddess Ceres, Mrs. Mae Walsh; Goddess Pomona, Mrs. Katherine Shadle; Goddess Flora, Mrs. Ora Lear; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Leone Keesling; musician, Mrs. Virginia Rutherford; executive committeeman, J. C. Gordon.

Plans Made For Old Settlers' Day

Committeemen of both the Chamber of Commerce and American Legion met Wednesday evening to formulate plans for Old Settlers Day, and the outgrowth was a tentative outline of what should be a highly colorful and interesting affair.

Walter Silberbauer, newly elected president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided, with Martin S. Walsh giving his experiences in staging many similar affairs in the past. Lowell Benson, Guy Smith, Gus Robillard and Dave Ribble made up the balance of the committee.

If hopes prove to be realities, one of the great names in the recent Pacific warfare will grace the program as speaker of the day. Principals James Dent and William Henley will be asked to take over parade arrangements, with school and civic organizations invited to have representation. A military unit is being requested to add color to the local presentations.

With 11 o'clock scheduled as official opening hour, Mark Purmort will again preside at the registration table, there to record the names of visitors as he has done in past years.

An afternoon parade will be a feature, weather permitting. The main talk of the day will follow, at about 3 o'clock, and with speeches again after supper. Possibilities of an entertainment will be followed, climaxing the day will be the theme for the entire program—Welcome Home to Veterans, in the nature of a dance, at which uniforms of all wars will dominate. It is requested that every serviceman don his uniform again for this event.

Meanwhile, suggestions will be welcome from any and every source. The committee wants to make this strictly a community affair, not dominated by any one group or interest. Citizens of the entire area should accept the responsibility of doing their share to keep alive this traditional celebration, and only by offering suggestions, assistance and cooperation can it be a success.

School Board Meets

At a meeting of the Campbell Union High school board Tuesday evening protest was made to the sale of bottled liquor goods by a new grocery store in the vicinity of the school. This action was also taken previously by the Campbell Union Grammar school board.

Use of the high school gymnasium was granted for Old Settlers' Day at the request of Walter Silberbauer, new president of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce. Both Campbell schools will close to celebrate the event on Feb. 22, as has been done for many years.

Information About Stolen Checks

A large number of checks were stolen from Field's Grocery Store on Monday and Carl Fields is offering a reward for the return of the checks or information which would result in their return.

He asks that customers who cashed checks on Saturday to please come into the store and describe the checks so that payment may be stopped on them.

Luncheon Guest

Mrs. Walter Stray and her daughter, Miss Helen Stray, had as their luncheon guest last week, Mrs. Andrew P. Hill of Stockton, who is well known in Campbell.

Knowles Made Director

J. W. Knowles, prominent Campbell poultryman, was the unanimous choice for Santa Clara district director on the board of the Poultry Producers of Central California at the association's primary meeting held at San Jose last Wednesday evening. E. M. Secord of San Jose, was chairman of the evening.

B. A. Schommer, for many years manager of the San Jose branch of the egg-marketing and feed-supply cooperative, gave a brief report of the year's business at his branch.

W. E. Newlon, College of Agriculture Extension Poultryman, gave a talk on the poultry situation.

L. N. Thompson, assistant to the general manager, and L. B. Gardner, secretary-treasurer of the association, brought reports from General Manager John Lawler, now in the East on business, and Assistant General Manager H. C. Eales, in charge of the feed department. While figures have not been completed for the year, the reports indicated that 1,330,000 cases of eggs were handled for members, and that they were supplied with 290,000 tons of feed. A conservative estimate of the total volume of business for the year was $38,000,000.

Due to shortages of feedstuffs and of labor, membership in the cooperative was closed a large part of the year. In spite of this, it stood at approximately 10,650 at the year's end.

Campbell High PTA Hold Meeting

Campbell High PTA members were entertained with a lively student panel discussion when the unit met for the first meeting of 1946 on Jan. 9, at 2:30 o'clock in the Little Theater. Participating in the debate on "The Thinking of Our Girls and Boys Today—A Determining Factor for Tomorrow", were the following students: Nina Page, Bill Underwood, Claire Booker, Charles Busack and Dale LaMar. They were presented by the Almaden PTA president, Mrs. Anthony Kambish, who served as chairman of the day for the Campbell unit.

President Mrs. Earl Booker presided over the regular business session, which was preceded by an executive board meeting at 1:30 o'clock.

The Almaden unit was welcomed as special guests of the Campbell unit.

Mrs. Anthony Jurras was elected to serve as delegate on the council nominating committee. Mrs. H. Cousins, Founders' Day chairman, asked the members' aid in obtaining yellow flowers for the Founders' Day program.

Junior mothers served as hostesses for the social hour which followed the business meeting.

Members of the Campbell unit who have completed the course in parliamentary law and procedure given by Mrs. C. H. Danforth are the Mesdames Earl Booker, R. E. Schaeffle, Clarence Fagalde, John Perata, M. Bersano and Anthony Jurras. They will be awarded certificates from the state office.

Darrell Carpenter Home

Pfc. Darrell Carpenter, son of Mrs. J. F. McGushin, 345 Thornton Way, returned home last week aboard the USS Matsonian after several months in Sendai, Japan. Carpenter, who graduated from the Campbell Union High school, was a paratrooper with the 11th Airborne Division and received his wings at Fort Benning, Georgia. He has re-enlisted in the Army, and after 30 days at home will return to active duty.

Neal Kennedy Has Furlough

After enjoying a 15-day furlough at home, Pvt. Neal Kennedy, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Kennedy is returning to Fort Sheridan, Ill., where he serves in the Finance Section.

THE PARENT TEACHER ORGANIZATION

By MRS. CLARENCE FAGALDE

It is said that the strength of a nation lies in the character of its people. If this be true, then the children of the nation, our future citizens, must be the nucleus from which to evolve men and women of the right character. The Parent Teacher Organization embodies in its objectives this ideal. The National Congress of Parents and Teachers is an educational organization that seeks to unite the forces of home, school and community in behalf of children and youth.
Your local P.T.As endeavor to carry out these objectives.

The figures released in the December issue of the National Congress Bulletin shows a paid membership of 3,487-138, one of the largest and strongest organizations in the world today.

You will find that your local units stand ready, at all times, to help your child, the school and the community.
And just what has Campbell High P.T.A. ever done? The unit is responsible for the lighting of the tennis courts, the choir robes worn by the school choir, a new audiometer, an audio-visual projecto machine, music pins awarded each year to two students, assisted in establishing and maintaining, with other organizations, the war youth center, and the stop signs on the highway by the schools. These are some of the things that come to mind when speaking of material effects accomplished by the unit as a service organization.

Our paid membership this year is the highest ever attained, over 200, thanks to you parents who have joined.
We invite you to join us on our meeting dates, normally the second Wednesday of each month. Campbell High P.T.A. needs you and you need us.

MISSOURI SNOW SHOVELERS

WASHINGTON. — The problem of snow removal from the sidewalks around the "Summer White House" created something of a problem just before President Truman paid his Christmas visit to Independence, Mo.

At first nothing was done about the snow around the Truman mansion. Secret service agents guarding the house said it was their job to guard, not to shovel. Finally James T. Hopkins, aged 59, got out his horse Dick, aged five,
and with a home-made snow plow cleared the snow from the North Delaware street side of the Truman home. But he didn't have time to clear the West Van Horn road side because he had to clear the walks used by children.

One day before Mrs. Truman arrived, however, George Dodsworth, president of the Independence Chamber of Commerce, called out the chamber's six new directors.
He told them that the snow around the "Summer White House" would have to be cleared and their initiation into the chamber would be to do the job.

They did a good job. The walks around the Truman home were thoroughly shoveled.

They did not, however, tackle the drive in the rear of the house.
So next morning, two employees from the highway department arrived to clear the driveway. They had shoveled for about 20 minutes when the first lady appeared on the back porch.

"You are shoveling gravel on the grass," admonished Mrs. Truman, always a meticulous housekeeper.

There were some explanations that they had been sent by the highway department to clear the snow.

"I don't care who sent you," replied Mrs. Truman, "I want you to quit."

Which is exactly what they did.
Mrs. Truman left instructions with a secret service agent not to let anyone scoop snow from the drive. And no one has.

THE OTHER LaFOLLETTE

When the name LaFollette is mentioned in Washington, most people think of the Senator from Wisconsin, who succeeded his crusading bull-moose father. But another LaFollette, from Indiana, not Wisconsin, who sits in the House of Representatives, not the Senate, is also attracting more and more attention.

Empty chairs fill up quickly when Rep. Charles LaFollette takes the floor for a speech. Colleagues may sometimes disagree with the two-fisted Indiana Republican, but they agree that what he says usually is interesting and never fails to pack a wallop.

In fact, one of his recent speeches packed such a wallop that conservative colleagues on the Republican side almost swooned. For La Follette attacked that super-sacred cow, states' rights, and before he was through had virtually de-horned the animal.

"There are no such things as states' rights," declared the red-headed Hoosier. "There are rights of citizens who live within a state. The man who speaks of state sovereignty speaks the language of totalitarianism.
There is only individual sovereignty."

Colleagues on both sides of the aisle listened in amazed silence.
Only congressmen to answer were two Republicans: Jensen of Iowa and Bates of Massachusetts. Significantly, no whippers came from southern Democrats.

"Did not the sovereignty of the states exist long before the federal government was established?"
asked Bates.

"Yes, but man existed long before the State of Massachusetts," shot back LaFollette.
"The State of Massachusetts did not create its citizens and does not own them. The citizens own the state. In the continental congress and the convention which created the constitution . . . the issue was not states' rights."

"The issue was, 'Shall the people determine that they can be better served by a (federal) government with power over the state.' That is the constitutional answer, and it is the only answer that parallels with any idea of the innate dignity and

MR. AND MRS. PETE SPRAGIA, Proprietors

James Garrison Dies in Oakland

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. at the Ruth-erford Funeral Home, Winchester Road, for James Garrison who died at the Oak Knoll Navy Hos-pital in Oakland Jan. 11. Inter-ment followed at the Santa Clara City Cemetery.

Garrison, who did carpenter work for many years, had retired three years ago and lived quiet-ly at his Casey Road home. He is survived by his wife, Mattie Garrison, five sons: Lee, Emory, William, Armon, James and El-mer Garrison, the latter serving in the Navy, and three daughters: Mrs. Bertha Barnett of Campbell, Mrs. Myrtle Solomon of Wichita, Kan., and Mrs. Lela Thompson of Stordorn, Minn.

Surviving also are 24 grand-children, 23 of whom attended the services held for their grand-father.

Amiability is very often a weak-ness, but the most unobjectionable one as a rule.—Lady Morgan.

Army Nurse Visits

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Cramer had their daughter-in-law, Lieut. Polly Cramer, for a brief visit last week while her ship, the USS Dogwood, Army hospital ship, was docked in San Francisco. The ship re-turned loaded with wounded from Manila and Lieutenant Cramer re-ports that after spending eight days in Manila, the destruction was indescribable. The ship re-turned by way of Corregidor and Leyte, picking up more wounded veterans.

Mrs. A. M. Dority, the lieuten-ant's mother, who has a millinery shop in Hanford, is now a guest at the Cramer home, combining a visit with them with the spring style show in San Francisco.

Make sure your home has an ample-size water heater — at least 30 gallon capacity

The next time you buy an automatic water heater for your home or for the new home you are plan-ning, provide an adequate water supply for a new automatic washing machine or electric dish-washer. Hot water and plenty of it, activates soap into billions of energetic cleansing bubbles. Then steamy torrents of sterilizing rinse-water restore clothes to bright newness and dinner dishes to shining cleanliness. It costs very little more at the start to buy an ample family-size water heater to take care of washday, bathroom and kitchen hot water needs. And operating cost too, is very little more. Remember your family uses lots of hot water. Tests show that the average family of four uses more than 50 gallons a day. A small size water heater wears out from overwork in many a home. Buy wisely...buy a bigger water heater next time.

MacQuarrie Speaks At Legion Meeting

In spite of earlier rumors that Jack Z. Anderson's talk at the Le-gion open meeting Wednesday night had to be called off, it was not emphasized strongly enough that Dr. T. W. MacQuarrie, pres-ident of San Jose State College had been secured as a substitute. The result was a rather slim at-tendance who listened to the well-known educator relate the rapid growth of his institution. In a two-day period, more than 900 students over expected enrollment swelled classrooms to overflowing. Most of these were veterans tak-ing advantage of the generous G. I. Bill of Rights.

Com-mander Wilbur Mitchell presided, and called upon Vice-Com-mander Al Carter to intro-duce Dr. MacQuarrie. Regular business was dispensed with, ex-cepting the presentation of colors to the tune of Ed Lee's bugle.

Committee Selects Historical Data

The first meeting of a new Californiana advisory committee which will assist in selection of Californiana historical material for publication, was held at the Bohemian Club in San Francisco, in conjunction with a luncheon honoring Dr. Oscar O. Winther, whose "Via Western Express and Stagecoach" has just been published by the Stanford University Press. Members of the committee, which was appointed by President Donald B. Tresidder of Stanford, are Director Donald P. Bean of the Stanford University Press; Dean Harold W. Bradley of the Claremont Graduate School; Chilton R. Bush, head of Stanford's journalism department; William H. Davis, editor-emeritus of the Stanford University Press; George A. Ditz, Stanford trustee, Stockton lawyer and collector of Californiana; Francis P. Farquhar, San Francisco, former editor of the Sierra Bulletin and collector of Californiana; George L. Harding, San Francisco, president of the California Historical Society; Joseph Henry Jackson, literary editor of the San Francisco Chronicle; Edgar E. Robinson, Margaret Byrne, professor of American history, Stanford; Maxwell H. Saville, Stanford professor of history; Carl I. Wheat, Washington, collector of Californiana; and Oscar O. Winther, Huntington Library research fellow and noted authority on the history of the West.

Latest of Stanford University Press's popular books on early transportation in the West, "Via Western Express and Stagecoach", tells the exciting story of the overland transportation lines serving the gold-hungry hordes which swarmed westward a century ago. Included in the book are histories of Wells Fargo, the Butterfield Stages, the Pony Express, Russell, Majors and Waddell, and other rival lines.

Featured in the book—which has the same attractive format as "Cable Car Days in San Francisco", "Ships of the Redwood Coast", "Bonanza Railroads", and others in the popular series—are descriptions of the picturesque, famous and infamous drivers who piloted the stagecoaches, the passengers who were jostled from place to place in them, the towns they thundered through, the bandits who held them up, and the cargo they carried. Maps and illustrations also are included.

Vets Asked To Return Clothing

World War II veterans throughout the West today were urged by the Ninth Service Command Quartermaster at Fort Douglas, Utah, to return to the Army any unwanted items of GI clothing and equipment still in their possession.

Especially needed are woolen garments, including blouses, OD shirts and underwear, Colonel R. F. Bartz, quartermaster, declared. Such issued items are retained by the soldier when discharged from the Army.

Veterans desiring to turn in clothing and equipment may dispatch them collect to the nearest Army installation in care of the property officer.

Housing For Vets

Utilization of temporary housing facilities for veterans until such time as a permanent building program is established, was among the subjects scheduled for discussion by the National Legislative Committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Washington, D. C., on Jan. 14, 15 and 16.

Richard H. Newhall, California Department Commander of the V. F. W., announced today that J. Rufus Klawans, of San Francisco, vice-chairman of the National Legislative Committee, attended the meeting and discussed California's veteran problem with the group.

Klawans, in a meeting with Commander Newhall, expressed the belief that at least 50 per cent of all construction materials will be channeled by government priority to the G-I building program.

Veterans enrolling at various universities and colleges in California, Klawans said, are complaining that they are unable to find suitable housing facilities. Temporary housing adjacent to such schools should be opened to veterans without further delay, Klawans said.

Navy Points Out Retirement Pay

Investment of $75,000 at a safe rate of interest would be required to equal the retirement pay of a navy man, according to J. H. Crickenger, CBM-USN, in charge of the Navy Recruiting Station, San Jose, Calif.

The average man is retired from the Navy in his middle 30's with an income sufficient to take care of him for the rest of his life, Crickenger pointed out.

"There is nothing to prevent a retired Navy man from getting a job in the trade which the Navy has taught him and adding materially to his income," he added.

A Navy career is not only educational but guarantees security for the rest of a man's life, Crickenger declared.

Ex-Campbell Press Employee Married

At one of San Jose's loveliest December weddings, Miss Virginia Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Armand C. Weber, San Jose, became the bride of Sgt. Kenneth O. Leverton, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve. Sergeant Weber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph C. Leverton of Morgan Hill and a brother of Jack Leverton of New Mexico. He attended Campbell Union High school, has a host of friends here and was at one time employed by The Press. He has been in the Marine Corps for the past three years, having served in the South Pacific for 20 months. He is now stationed at the Naval Air Base in Norman, Okla., and he and his bride will reside there while awaiting his discharge.

The ceremony was held at the First Presbyterian church with Dr. Paul Goodwin officiating. The bride's cousin, Miss Letha Medlin of Modesto, sang before the wedding, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Homer DeWitt Pugh.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory slipper satin and carried white bride's roses. She was attended by her two sisters, Miss Esta Ann Weber and Mrs. Earl H. Holtorf, who wore gowns of blue-green taffeta and carried bouquets of deep red roses.

Melford Medlin was best man and Earl Holtorf and Earle Rice served as ushers.

Following the rites, a reception for close friends and members of the families was held at the home of the bride's parents. The new Mrs. Leverton who attended San Jose State college is at present on leave from the Samuel Merritt Hospital School of Nursing in Oakland.

Eventually the young couple will make their home in San Jose.

Joseph P. Byrne, a World War II veteran who saw extensive naval service in the South Pacific, has been appointed State Director of Labor Relations of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, California Department Commander Richard H. Newhall announced.

Byrne, a graduate of the University of San Francisco, will, with the assistance of Commander Newhall, undertake an immediate study of job possibilities in California for returning war veterans.

AVOID TOOTHLESS DAYS

HAVE TEETH EXTRACTED AND PLATES FITTED AT SAME SITTING

Modern Dental Science has made possible "NO TOOTHLESS DAYS," or "Immediate Restorations." This is particularly important for those who have to meet the public during their daily occupation, such as teachers, actors, sales persons and others. They appreciate the importance of being able to wear their NEW DENTAL PLATES IMMEDIATELY FOLLOWING FINAL EXTRACTATIONS . . .

LOWER PLATES

A standardized Double Impression Technique for lowers makes it possible to overcome many cases that were formerly considered very difficult. Mouths With Little or No Lower Ridge belong in this class.

Patients who have tried this type lower plate with the new acrylic material and the new translucent teeth agree that the dental profession can now say, "You can EAT, TALK and SMILE with confidence."

Church Officers Elected

At the annual meeting of the Congregational church held Jan. 8, officers were elected to serve for the coming year. They include:

Trustees: Mr. Stanley Smith (chairman), Mrs. Carl Field, Mr. George Jeffers; deacons: Mr. Frank Cutting, Mr. Fred James, Mr. Klaude Block, Mr. Howard Smith; deaconesses: Mrs. Theodore Cutting, Mrs. C. E. Williams, Mrs. Elizabeth Duncan; music committee: Mrs. Eva Grattan, Mrs. David Sanders, Miss Elsa Fetsch; treasurer: Mr. Roy Archibald; financial secretary, Mrs. Ray Wood; Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Gilbert Newcomb; church clerk, Mrs. Emily Duncan.

Preceding the annual meeting there was a fellowship supper with group No. 1 of the Guild in charge of the arrangements. At the annual meeting reports were given by the officers and the minister. The reports disclosed that the youth work of the church is strong and that the total church program has gone ahead. The general spirit of the church was considered by the trustees to be that of progress and advance.

Young People Entertain

Last Sunday night the senior high and the junior high Pilgrim Fellowship groups of the Congregational church invited as their guests two other young peoples' groups. They were the Methodist Youth Fellowship of Campbell and the Pilgrim Fellowship of the Federated Church of Saratoga. The Rev. Hayden of Guerneville spoke emphasizing that the task of youth today was two-fold: first, to tear down the divisions of class and race which divide our world; and secondly to rebuild on the basis of Christian brotherhood. An hour of recreation and singing followed the worship service and Rev. Hayden's talk. Rev. Hayden and Mrs. Earl Buck led the recreation and the host youth groups served refreshments. Over 60 young people were present.

Willow Glen Group to Visit

The Willow Glen Methodist Youth Fellowship will be the guests of the Campbell Methodist church youth group next Sunday evening, Jan. 20, at 7 p. m. There will be a worship service and discussion group, and then a social hour. Fifteen to twenty young people are expected to come from Willow Glen. Meetings of this type have been conducted each year with fine success.

California State Fair

With more than 3,000,000 newcomers seeking homes as well as business and employment opportunities in the West, California counties are seizing the opportunity offered by the California State Fair to present their resources and attractions to the public.

F. M. Sandusky, manager of the exposition, announced that as of Jan. 1, 35 of the state's 58 counties had reserved space for exhibits at the 1946 fair, Aug. 29 to Sept. 9.

He reported that acceptances already are in excess of the total number of counties displaying at the last pre-war fair in 1941, and indications are that many additional counties will participate, but have not yet made official reservations. Nine of the counties which have reserved space did not exhibit at the 1941 exposition.

"Counties are grasping at this first post-war chance to display their resources before the hundreds of thousands of newcomers to our state, as well as the record crowds expected to attend the first post-war fair," Sandusky declared. "These newcomers, as well as many former residents now returned from the service, are looking for new fields and new locations."

"The 1946 State Fair will provide counties a special vehicle to advertise their many and varied opportunities and attractions and it is our goal to have every county in the state represented."

The following counties have made space reservations to date: Alameda, Amador, Butte, Contra Costa, El Dorado, Fresno, Humboldt, Inyo, Kern, Kings, Lassen, Los Angeles, Madera, Mendocino, Merced, Monterey, Napa, Nevada, Placer, Riverside, Sacramento, San Bernardino, San Diego, San Francisco, San Joaquin, Shasta, Siskiyou, Solano, Sonoma, Stanislaus, Sutter, Tuolumne, Ventura, Yolo and Yuba.

Mrs. Jennie McVea, Santa Clara-Los Gatos Road, has had as her guests for several days her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Weigle, Mr. Clair Taylor, all of Hanover, Pa., and Mrs. Lola Rouzer of Whittier. They will spend two weeks in Southern California and then drive to Florida for the remainder of the winter.

A man who displays his own merit is a fool, and a man who does not know it is a fool.—Chesfield.

Box Office Reporter

It's a good thing that "Our Vines Have Tender Grapes" will play for three days at the Campbell Theater for every third person seems to plan on seeing it. Tender is the word for this picture of life in a Wisconsin farming town. It speaks softly of love and work and neighborliness in a community of Americans whose forebears had been drawn to the region of lakes and hills because it reminded them of Norway. Centering chiefly in the reactions of a seven-year-old girl to the shape of the world about her, it is warm in sentiment and rich in scenic beauty.

The youngster, Selma Jacobson, is played by Margaret O'Brien, whose excellent performance sets the pace for a cast of skilled veterans, among them Edward G. Robinson, Agnes Moorehead and Morris Carnovsky. As a foil for her simple charm, there is Jackie "Butch" Jenkins, an adventurous but somewhat less virtuous five-year-old. And to round out the picture with a love story are James Craig and Frances Gifford, as the local editor and the school teacher who thinks she prefers life in Milwaukee but changes her mind.

The screenplay Dalton Trumbo wrote from the novel, "For Our Vines Have Tender Grapes," by George Victor Martin, is not a plot structure but a loose compounding of incidents not unlike "The Human Comedy" of a few years back. It tells of one year from spring to spring in Fuller Junction: the year that Selma got a calf of her own, the new teacher came, the Bjornsons' barn burned down and the children almost drowned in a tub.

Mrs. Water Visits
Mrs. Fred Water of Glendoe, Wyoming, is visiting at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Paul, Milton and W. Campbell Ave. She came to greet her new granddaughter, Millie Patricia, born the 13th of December. The new baby has an older sister, Barbara Regene.

Police Denison Ill
Miss Junice Denison fell a victim to the flu this week and was forced to stay at home.

Zenetta Council

Members of Zenetta Council met in Redmen Hall Wednesday evening with Stella Ely, Past Great Pocahontas of Palo Alto, as a guest. The application of Desma Cushman for membership was accepted. The rehabilitation committee asked for donations of cakes from the members for the January Birthday Party at Dibble Hospital.

Officers of the group will be installed on Jan. 23 and committees for the installation were appointed by Margaret Lochner, incoming Pocahontas. They are: refreshment committee, Ruby White, Concepcion Flores, Rose Guy, Pearl Panighetti and Iva Lawrence; escort team, Alda Bounaccorsi, Gloria Beneve, Gertrude Klem, Barbara Verzi, Vera May Irame, Gladys Booker, Betty Ann Weltz, Sharon Parker, Helen Sturla, Elnor Iaris, Mary Alice Balzer, Kathleen Grass, Lena Shelton, Lillia Verzevand, Lorraine Romitti with Irene Browning and Inez Means in charge; decorations, Mrs. Hooton and Inez Means.

George Reilly Speaks To Kiwanis Club

George Reilly of the State Board of Equalization explained the workings of that department to Campbell's Kiwanis club at the regular Tuesday luncheon. Guests from San Jose were Bill McLaughlin, Phil Moss, Joe McKinnon and Harold Jepson. Budd Levenberg had as his guest, Harvey Sheeter, of the Pepper Tree Market, and the weekly high school guest was Barbara Battli.

Joseph Gomes will serve as chairman next week, with Gil Cook, industrial manager of the San Jose Chamber of Commerce, as guest speaker.

Oddfellows Install Officers

Morning Light Lodge No. 42 will install new officers at the meeting tonight in IOOF Hall, and a large turnout is expected for the event. Officers to be installed are: Noble grand, Ray Gilpatrick; vice grand, Seymour A. Worth Jr.; recording secretary, A. E. Brydon; treasurer, T. A. Robinson; and financial secretary, S. G. Rice.

A degree staff, led by District Deputy Grand Master Chester Smith of Los Gatos, will install the elected men.

Mrs. Meredith Visits

Mrs. Elsie Meredith and her son were weekend visitors from Oakland at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dahm.
